Parish News...

Teaching Mass - This weekend, June 8/9, Father Kevin will lead us in a Teaching Mass. He will offer explanations about some of the many parts of the Mass - why priests and parishioners say and do certain things. All this will occur during the usual time for Mass.

The Annual HOPE Appeal continues this weekend. The programs, services and ministries supported by the Annual HOPE Appeal help meet the needs of people in our parish and diocese. The HOPE Appeal serves all of us in different ways. Our assessment this year is $45,435. You can now give online at: www.syracusediocese.org/foundation/hopeappeal/. Your financial support, in any amount, is greatly appreciated.

Thank you to the sweet child that left this cute Unicorn in front of Mary. It has had a bath and is ready to come home to you. Thank you again for your kind gesture. Your unicorn is waiting patiently in the Parish Office for you to pick up and take home.

Thank you for your support.

The St. James Annual Lawn Sale to benefit our fellow parishioners of St. Ives, Haiti will be held Saturday and Sunday, July 27 and 28. The best way to donate your clean usable items is to bring them to the usual sale site on Route 20 east of Cazenovia on Friday, July 26. If you cannot move larger items yourself, we can arrange to pick them up Friday, July 26th, or sooner if absolutely necessary. Call Kevin Kennedy at 315-662-3899 for more information. Sorry we cannot accept mattresses, sleeper sofas, exercise equipment, T.V.s, or clothing. We will need lots of help from Thursday, July 25 to Thursday, August 1.
